

facilitate, expedite this situation, we are going to have to have another call of the house, and I would request a roll call vote again.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Oh, excuse me, record on the call of the house.

CLERK: 23 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the house is under call. Now record your presence, please. And those not in the Chamber, return to the Chamber and record your presence. There are still three who are excused. We are looking for Senator Beyer, Senator Conway, Senator Dierks, Senator Haberman, Senator Moore, Senator Lynch, Labedz, Senator Pirsch. We are looking for Senator Haberman now. Okay, call ins are authorized.

CLERK: Senator Wehrbein voting no. Senator Dierks voting no. Senator Coordsen voting no. Senator Morehead voting no. Senator Scofield voting no. Senator Korshoj voting no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman, would you record your presence, please. Thank you. Please remain in your seats. Senator Miller, do you wish a roll call or record the vote?

SENATOR MILLER: Roll call.

PRESIDENT: Roll call. Proceed, or wait a minute, is everybody here that is not excused? All right, I guess we are all here except those who are now excused. Roll call and the question is the advancement of LB 128. Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 426 of the Legislative Journal.) 25 ayes, 22 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of the bill.

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced. Do you have anything to put in at this time, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir, I do.

PRESIDENT: The call is raised.
